Juror:

Ralph Larmann is a Professor of Art at the University of Evansville where he teaches painting, and general art courses. Larmann grew up in the Cincinnati area and received his BFA from the University of Cincinnati and MFA from James Madison University in Harrisonburg, Virginia. Larmann works with and teaches oils, acrylics, tempera, encaustic and fresco. He learned fresco painting from the last surviving member of the Mexican Muralist Movement, Melchor Peredo, when he was a visiting artist at Southern Arkansas University in the late 1990's. Larmann is the coauthor of Gateways to Art, a bestselling art text that has received worldwide acclaim and is available in Chinese and Korean translations. Larmann is also the author of the Art Studio Chalkboard, an online art tutorial, and ArtExperience, a CD-ROM available through Wadsworth Publishing. Before coming to Evansville he taught at Loyola University Chicago, Herron School of Art/IUPUI, University of Cincinnati, and Southern Arkansas University. Larmann is a former President of the college art organization F.A.T.E. (Foundations in Art: Theory and Education) and has twice taught at Harlaxton College in the United Kingdom. Larmann's work has been shown in a variety of venues in the United States and United Kingdom. He has received numerous awards and has work in a number of collections, including Indiana State University, Art Museum of Greater Lafayette, and Harlaxton Manor.
